Legal Action Threat Halts Closed Session

The threat of a restraining order stopped a scheduled closed session of Randall County commissioners Monday.

Commissioners through County Judge Woody Pond issued a typed statement calling off the closed meeting, originally scheduled for Monday afternoon to discuss either "contemplated litigation" or "our tax problems."

Canyon News Editor Carroll Wilson through his attorney, Jim Brown of Canyon, presented a restraining order for filing to 181st Dist. Judge Don Dean about 9:15 a.m. Monday in the Canyon courthouse.

County commissioners had posted notice last Friday indicating they intended to hold a closed session. County Judge Pond told Wilson the closed meeting would be to discuss "our tax problems," while the notice of meeting said the purpose was to consider "contemplated litigation."

Judge Dean suggested a copy of the restraining order be transmitted to Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen and Assistant Dist. Atty. Jim Blair before filing.

Brown gave copies of the order to the district attorney staff, who hastily met with Judge Pond for more than an hour.

About 10:30 a.m., 30 minutes following the scheduled time for commissioners to meet in the courthouse to begin paying their monthly bills, Pond emerged from Dowlen's office with a prepared statement.

With Commissioners Jim Fletcher and Paul Lindsey the only commissioners present, Pond read the statement in open court. He reread the statement again at 1 p.m.

The statement said:

"In view of the fact that we have been informed that there is no contemplated litigation that we are aware of, there is no necessity for a closed meeting at this time. However, it may be necessary in the future to have a closed session between ourselves and our attorney to discuss matters which are privileged under the attorney-client relationship."

With issuance of the statement that the closed meeting had been cancelled Wilson withdrew his petition for issuance of the restraining order.

Wilson said following the Monday meeting he was satisfied with the outcome of the events.

"As I said in my petition, there was obviously no litigation contemplated and therefore no reason for the commissioners to meet in closed session," he said. "I feel if we had not pushed for a restraining order, the commissioners would have gone into closed session anyway and would then have been able to discuss just about anything without the public being informed."

Pond was quoted as saying the restraining order threat had no bearing on the commission decision not to have the closed meeting.

"I think the restraining order kept them from going behind closed doors," Wilson said.

Assistant Dist. Atty. Blair had told Wilson last week that the "contemplated litigation" concerned the threat of a suit to be filed by Ama-

TMRS Says They Prefer Court Action

Battle Looms In Discrimination

Marguerite Strain, who wants to retire next fall after nearly 30 years as a City of Canyon employee, may have to await the results of a lengthy court battle before she finds out whether she'll receive retirement benefits equal to those given men.

Dean Gorham, executive director of the Texas Municipal Retirement System, said Tuesday he stands firm in his conviction that the federal government will have to take him to court to get him to change the way his system issues benefits to retirees.

Gorham indicated he will not be interested in meeting with Federal Employment Opportunity Commission officials and Mrs. Strain to work out her retirement benefits so they are on an equal footing with men.

The federal office issued a decision recently which stated that the TMRS and the City of Canyon are discriminating against women in the retirement system since women must in essence work five years longer than a man to receive equal benefits.

Gorham said from his Austin office Tuesday that the federal decision, while not binding, could have far-reaching impact on other retirement systems if the TMRS blandly concedes they are right in their decision.

Thus, he said, court action will have to be pursued to clarify the decision and make it enforceable.

Gorham said the federal office statements that the decision will not have an effect on the rest of the TMRS structure is incorrect.

"It's a real, real serious thing," he said. "This would be terrific if they enforce that."

Gorham said the decision strikes at the heart of insurance company figurings and at the heart of all other similar retirement systems.

The decision, he said, in effect denies the use of actuarial tables to figure benefits for retirees, tables which say the average life span of a woman is 5 years longer than that of a man.

Gorham said the TMRS board meets June 29 and will discuss how to handle the federal decision.

City Manager George Loudder said the City of Canyon can do nothing about the system since it is provided for by state statute.

He said he has forwarded his copy of the decision to Gorham and expects the TMRS to take whatever action it can take to comply with the decision or fight it.

Even though not directly mentioned in the EEOC decision, the Texas members of the Texas County and District Retirement System will also be affected by whatever action the TMRS takes.

Randall County employees as well as nearly 40,000 other employees in the state are under the TCDRS.

J. Robert Brown, executive director of that system, recently sent a letter to all members of the system denying the system discriminates against women.

The letter pointed out the main argument of those who run retirement systems — that because women outlive men by five years,

Special Meeting Set Today For City

Canyon city commissioners will meet in special session tonight to take the same action Randall County commissioners took Monday in issuing of certificates of obligation for construction.

Commissioners will meet at 7 p.m. today at the community center with Bob Davis of Columbian Securities Corporation to sign authorizations for bidding for a new city hall complex.

Randall County commissioners signed the paperwork during their Monday meeting and called for bids for construction of a new South Amarillo courthouse annex.

Both sets of commissions are privately jittery about the certificate of obligation route and fear petitions could still stop construction of both buildings.

Davis is scheduled to present the authorization for the seeking of bids for the $1.3 million city hall during tonight's session.

Bids for construction are to be opened at 2 p.m. July 10 at the community center.

During action Monday, Randall commissioners set the date for opening of bids for a $300,000 courthouse annex on 2 p.m. July 1. Final awarding of contract will be July 8.

City commissioners are also expected to set the date for awarding of the contract during their today's session.

What has both sets of commissioners jittery is the potential for other petitions to be presented at the appropriate time to call a referendum election for the people to air their wishes on construction.

The possibility this week appeared remote that such a move would be made in the Canyon civic complex construction since voters here have only two weeks ago given overwhelming approval to the construction in a referendum-type vote.

But, the possibility appears far from remote that such action could come about for Randall commissioners in their effort to construct the new annex.

Davis told The News Monday

County Changes Personnel Policy

County commissioners Monday changed their much-abused personnel policy and now have a policy which allows them to grant salary increases as they deem necessary.

Commissioners altered their policy during open session after reviewing the old policy which said that salary adjustments for county employees would be made only once each year on a designated day.

Commissioners had violated their policy at least four times this year. Salaries were adjusted for the year during January and under the old policy were not to be changed until next year.

They have granted salary increases to several employees in the county tax assessors office since January and also to sheriff's deputies.

The new policy statement allows commissioners to adjust salaries as necessary.

In other action Monday, Conway Kuykendall, tax assessor for the Canyon School District and the City of Canyon, asked commissioners for a list of car registrations in the county for use in his tax office.

The request hit a sore spot for

Festivities Abound Wed. For 'TEXAS' Opening

The final week of rehearsals are underway and final plans are being laid now for big happenings Wednesday night as the 9th season of "TEXAS," the musical-drama which has spread the word of the Canyon area from coast to coast, opens in Palo Duro Canyon.

Before the curtain goes up on the first performance of this summer's run of "TEXAS," two big events are scheduled in the Pioneer Amphitheatre.

Winners of the drama-sponsored railroad art contest will be announced and honored in pre-performance ceremonies Wednesday night.

And, more than a dozen Panhandle-area towns will receive official recognition as bicentennial cities as part of the American Revolution Bi-Centennial celebration.

Locomotives, cabooses, lanterns, trestles, tracks, long trains, stations and signals will be portrayed on paper as the special feature of the evening.

They will hang at the theatre and the winners of the railroad contest will be announced from the stage. Winning entries will also be exhibited at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon from June 23-27.

Three judges are currently making the selections of the winners from the entries of the finalists. They are Olive Vandruff Bugbee, art curator of the museum, David Sanders of Austin and F. N. Stuppi, general manager of the Santa Fe Railway in Amarillo.

Mrs. Bugbee is a painter trained at the University of Chicago. Sanders is the artist for the 1974 souvenir program for "TEXAS."

Winners of the first judging of the railroad art competition include:

paintings — J. W. Dillard of Borger, Hank Gerdsen of Canyon, Carl Hollabaugh of Canyon, Maxine Turner of Sterling City, Okla., and Suzanne Tekyl of Plainview.

pen and ink — Robert Campbell of Hereford, and Bob Hargrave of Happy.

photograph — Kim Brown of Lubbock, David Cagle of Lubbock, Kerry Campbell of Lubbock, Lawrence Gibbs of Stillwater, Okla., Jim McDonaugh of Canyon, Mary Nabors Prewitt of Pecos and J. L. Sursa of Lubbock.

More than 20 Panhandle area cities and seven counties are planning to have representatives on hand Wednesday night for ceremonies during which they will receive special bicentennial flags as official recognition as part of the nation-wide celebration.

The American Revolution Bicentennial Committee will present the flags.

Mayors and county judges from the towns are expected to attend the opening night festivities for the presentation

Canyon Weather Driving Some Underground Into Storm Cellars

Canyon area weather is apparently driving some people underground.

Amarillo area reputation as a spring storm center has apparently spawned new interest in construction of storm cellars and basements in new homes going up in Canyon.

Statistics in the city code enforcement office indicate building permits have been issued since April for construction of three storm cellars, the most such permits issued in many years.

Only one such permit was issued in 1972, the last time a storm cellar construction permit was issued.

Jerry Lehnick, code enforcement officer for Canyon, said builders of new homes are also showing more interest in construction of large basements.

He said if the trend continues many new homes will be built with basements.

Lehnick said he feels the construction of storm cellars is probably almost entirely related to the reputation of the spring weather in the Panhandle while the construction of basements is probably based on the desire to have more room available.

He said many builders include construction of the basement for game rooms or family rooms with protection from tornadoes a side benefit.

A Canyon builder of storm cellars, Monte Chandler, said he has seen a renewed and widespread interest in construction of storm cellars not only in Canyon but also in Amarillo.

Chandler is currently constructing the three cellars now being built here.

He said the main reason given him by persons seeking construction of such cellars is the weather.

"One man is a custom farmer and he's away a lot of the time and he had it put in so he won't have to worry about his family," he said. "It seems like everybody's heard this is the main pattern for tornadoes."

Chandler said he is due to build three or four more storm cellars in Canyon in the near future.

He said the calls come from residents of new or newer homes in the city.

While Canyon has never been struck by a tornado, a low pressure system of some kind was responsible last month for the removal of the roofs of two Hunsley Hills addition homes.

Amarillo's northeast side was hit by a tornado last week end.

Singers To Music Camp

One hundred and fifty junior and senior high school students are expected on the West Texas State University campus June 23 for the Fourth Annual West Texas Choral Music Camp.

The week-long camp features the mixed choir, directed by guest clinician Dr. Eph Ehly, choral conductor from the Conservatory of Music at the University of Missouri-Kansas City.

Dr. Ehly has served as choral clinician throughout the United States, and is known for his work with junior and senior high age students, according to Dr. George Umberson, WTSU music department head and camp director.

Goals of the camp are "primarily to give choral and vocal students some summer enrichment," says Umberson, "to extend them musically, personally and vocally."

Campers will spend from five to six hours in rehearsals and classes each day. Classroom offerings are rhythm activities, stage movement, theory, conducting, beginning piano, private voice lessons and UIL solo preparation.

In addition to the mixed choir, students may audition for madrigal groups, men's quartets and girls' ensembles.

The camp will close with a concert by the mixed choir June 29 in the WTSU Branding Iron Theatre. The 4 p.m. performance is open to the public at no charge.

Staff members for the Choral Music Camp are Dr. Hugh Sanders, associate professor of music at WTSU, and high school music directors Tom Jennings of Canyon, John Woicikowfski of Pampa, George Biffle of Amarillo and Tom Adams of Andrews.

Students attending the camp will participate in a talent night, and will see a performance of the musical drama "TEXAS" at Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

Campers attending from Canyon schools are Melinda Brown, Rt. 2, Amarillo; Kenneth Cranfill, 4218 Camp, Amarillo; Twila Davis, 2429 15th Ave.; Jeanna Fulton, 1007 14th St.; Carla Glenn, 501 3rd St.; Steve Huffstutler, 2411 15th Ave.; Kay Martin, 1406 8th St.; Stacy McAlpin, 1707 Hillcrest.

The Andrew Abarr family has recently moved to Canyon. Members of the family include, l. to r., Abarr, Michelle, David and Mrs. Abarr.

Abarr Family Moves To Canyon

The Andrew Abarr's are new to Canyon. They have lived in Canyon for the past three weeks. They came to Canyon from Norman, Okla.

Abarr, a native of Iowa, is a petroleum engineer for Kerr-McGee of Amarillo. His wife is a student at WTSU majoring in accounting.

One of the reasons the Abarr family, which includes Abarr, his wife and two children, Michelle, age seven and David, age five, is the availability of apartments. Abarr said that because of their moving to Canyon at the end of the spring semester of school, he felt that more apartments were available. He said that if they had waited until later to move, there might not have been as many to choose from.

Mrs. Abarr said that she liked a small town like Canyon. She said that she enjoyed the accessibility of businesses in Canyon.

One of the striking aspects of Canyon for the Abarr's is the conservatism of the town since it is a college town.

Abarr, who worked for Mobil Oil for five years prior to coming to Canyon, said that he liked "to see it rain because for the 24 hour period following the rain, the wind does not blow."

Abarr is a graduate of Iowa State University with a degree in civil engineering.

The Abarr family enjoy hobbies of swimming and tennis.

Run-aways Not Problem

Run-away teenagers may be a monumental problem to metropolitan police forces in terms of sheer numbers if not necessarily in terms of time devoted to solve the problem, but in Canyon the problem barely exists.

So says Chief of Police Al Stewart, who said recent criticism of the Houston Police Department in their handling of run-aways spurred by the horrified discovery of a homosexual-murder ring caused increased awareness among police officers throughout the country of the potential dangers inherent for run-aways.

Stewart said Canyon experiences an average of only one or two bonafide run-aways each year and usually those incidents are solved by putting Amarillo police on the alert.

The chief said the Houston revelations reminded police in brutal fashion that run-away complaints are not to be taken lightly.

"The Houston murders made law enforcement officers take a second look," he said.

Many officers have a tendency to place a low priority on the finding of run-away youths, he said, because almost every child determines at one time or other in his life to run away from home.

Stewart said officers must remind themselves to concentrate their energies on finding run-away youths, with the fear implanted in their minds that the Houston tragedies might be repeated.

Few run-away teenagers from Canyon homes have not been found or have not returned on their own volition, Stewart said.

He said a good deal of time can go into an investigation involving a run-away youth.

Parents and friends must be interviewed and tracers must be sent to possible locations where the youth might be heading.

Because the run-away problem in Canyon is no real problem, officers can devote proper attention to the cases as they arise, he said, without assigning the cases a low priority.

While run-aways pose no serious problems for local police, Stewart said missing person reports are a perplexing if infrequent puzzle for local officers.

Run-aways usually differ from missing persons in that run-aways usually take their clothes, car and other belongings with them when they disappear.

Missing persons are usually listed as missing after loved ones or friends become worried over the sudden disappearance for no apparent reason, he said.

The problem of tracing a missing person is different from that of tracing a run-away, Stewart said.

The initial problem is where to look or where to begin to look for the missing person.

"The U.S. is a large place," Stewart said. "You just don't know where to start looking."

If a missing person is reported, Stewart said initial procedure is to relay all available descriptive data through the National Crime Information Center in the hope the individual can be located.

From there, he said, it is a matter of sorting leads and depending on dissemination of information to turn up more potential leads.

Stewart said missing person reports in Canyon are rare occurrences.

Foreign Students To Visit Canyon

Forty foreign young people will come to Canyon June 23 on a tour that will have taken them throughout the Southwestern United States, according to Dr. Kenneth Waugh.

Prior to the tour of the Southwest, they will have spent some time on Lake Texhoma at an International Youth Camp.

Those who planned the tour made special plans for the young people to be in Canyon for the "TEXAS" performance held at Palo Duro Canyon.

Summer Recreation Program To Begin Monday

The Canyon Summer Recreation Program will begin Monday, June 17. Activities offered this year are swimming, diving, twirling, cheerleading, arts and crafts, drama, tennis, trampoline, tumbling, golf, bowling and archery.

Instructors for the classes will be college students who are specialists in the area they will be working with.

All activities except swimming will be held at WT.

Weather Curtails Outdoor Services

Turbulent weather has curtailed the attendance at religious services being conducted in Palo Duro Canyon each Sunday since early June. About 60 have attended the services for the past two Sundays.

Worship services will be at 11 a.m. each Sunday at the Cottonwood Grove, just past water crossing number 5 on the floor of the canyon.

J. C. Newton, cowboy lay preacher, extends in invitation to park visitors and personnel to attend the weekly services which had George Caviness, retired Air Force instructor, as guest speaker last Sunday.

Century Plant Blooming Here

A blooming century plant has shot up a long stem from its prickly cactus base to bloor in profuse yellow blossoms in the front corner of the C. F. Hollabaugh yard at 2115 3rd Avenue.

"It only blooms once each century, and after its blooms fade, it will die out," stated Mrs. Hollabaugh. The unusual plant grows in abundance in the Big Bend Country and was transported from near the Rio Grande at Fort Davis by the Hollabaughs to be planted in their yard here about ten years back.

The century plant lies dormant for its lifetime until it shoots the "blooming stem" out with branches bearing cluster effects in a blossom.

"This one blooms yellow, too," said Mrs. Hollabaugh recalling their previous century plant. "It must have been about 90 years old when we brought it — it was growing in shallow gravel and was not too hard to dig up."

The blossom stalk of the century plant measures about 25-30 feet tall and grew at a rate of 10-12 inches each day in preparation for blooming this summer, she stated.

The Hollabaughs have developed a love of cacti and succulent plants and often drive through the country just to have a look at the various plants when in bloom.

Celebration Set For Presbyterian Church Building

An Ecumenical Service of Celebration and Thanksgiving will be held Sunday, June 16, at the new building of the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon located at 901 19th Street.

The service will begin at 5 p.m. with Rev. Baldwin J. Stribling as host pastor.

Special music services will include an adult and young person from each of the Canyon church choirs as guests participating with the Sanctuary and Youth Choirs of the host church.

Participating in the service will be local pastors including Rev. Terry White, pastor of the First Christian Church; Rev. Jack Gist, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church; Rev. James Bethell, chaplain of the Episcopal University Center and Chapel of St. George; and Rev. Bill Kent, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

WT Student Interns In National Office

Laura J. SoRelle will begin duties August 1 as an intern worker in the Washington offices of U.S. Representative Bob Price.

Miss SoRelle, a West Texas State University student, will participate in the special program which is designed to give young people a firsthand introduction to governmental operations.

She is majoring in agricultural business and economics at West Texas State University where she is a member of Delta Zeta sorority and the Rodeo Club. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles SoRelle of Dumas.

Garner's Flute Playing Wins Honors

Brad Garner was selected as outstanding flutist at state competitions recently in Austin.

Garner, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gary Garner of Canyon, received the selection as outstanding flutist which was his third consecutive selection for the honor.

He also won a first division in flute competition in the solo contests which had an entry list of about 9,000 competitors. To enter the state contests, students must qualify by first making a Division I rating in the University Interscholastic League competitions held during the school year. It was his fifth Gold State Medal.

Also receiving a first division at the state solo contests was John King, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. King of Canyon. King's father is director of bands here.

A division III rating went to a quintet from Canyon including Dan McGlasson, Vern Zimmerman, Sheryl Sommer, D'Ann Holmes and Cindy Johnson.

Garner, who graduated from Canyon High School this spring, plans to continue his education in the music field this fall when he enrolls at West Texas State University.

Uniforms Needed For Scouts Here

A uniform bank to help scouts here reduce the expenses involved in scouting has been started for Troop 132 and used uniforms are now being sought.

Cary Magness, scoutmaster of the troop, said used scout uniforms are needed to help begin the bank.

"I feel sure many uniforms have been outgrown or are no longer being worn and could be again used by an active scout," Magness said. "Those with worn knees or elbows will be made into summer uniforms by the troop mothers committee."

Magness said the troop hopes to obtain enough uniforms so that as a scout outgrows his uniform he may trade it in for a larger one.

Persons wishing to donate uniforms are asked to bring them to the Hosea Foster Agency, 1518 5th Ave. Or the uniforms will be picked up if those interested will call Patricia Magness at 655-7993.

WT Offering Area Workshops

West Texas State University and the PESO education service center, are offering college credit workshops for teachers in area cities this summer.

Previously, all workshops sponsored by WTSU and PESO have been held in Amarillo. A bilingual education class for Hereford area teachers is scheduled June 24-Aug. 2.

The Hereford workshop is designed for teachers of first grade bilingual classes certified by the school district.

"We organize these workshops as they are needed," said Dean Jim Kidd of the WTSU College of Education. "It is part of our teacher center effort for the public schools."

About 25 teachers are now enrolled in a career education workshop at Pampa, said Kidd, and a workshop on individualized instruction began Monday in Borger.

Trew Elected Chairman of ACFA

Dan Trew, former principal at Canyon Junior High School, has been elected chairman of the Amarillo College Faculty Association.

Elected by popular vote of faculty members, Trew was the organization's social chairman last year. He has been teaching at AC five years in data processing and presently as a mid-management instructor.

He has been elementary principal for eight years in Panhandle, Borger and Hereford, three years as junior high principal and four years as business manager of the Borger schools.

He holds a bachelor of science degree in social science from North Texas State University and a master of education and master of business administration in data processing from West Texas State University. He holds lifetime memberships in the National Education Association, Texas State Teacher Association and Parent-Teacher Association.

Trew and his wife, Elaine, have one son and two twin daughters. Mrs. Trew is a second grade teacher at Gene Howe Elementary School.

WT Graduate Honored

Dr. Olie T. Brown, a graduate of West Texas State University, has been selected as an outstanding educator in America for 1974. He received his bachelor's degree from WT in 1939 and is now associate professor of religion and director of alumni affairs at California Baptist College. Melvin Wiecks Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Wieck of 1005 5th Street in Canyon announce the June 4 birth of a son, Andrew Joseph, who weighed 8 pounds and measured 19½ inches in length on arrival at Neblett Memorial Hospital.

The infant's father is employed with Micro Chemical in Amarillo.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Allen of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wieck of Umbarger.

Methodists Re-Assign Area Pastors

Pastoral changes occurred last week at the annual meeting of the Amarillo District of Northwest Texas Methodist Conference held in Amarillo with announcement of the ministerial changes being made at the concluding conference session Thursday evening.

Among changes announced were that Rev. Norman Cobb, who has been associate pastor with the United Methodist Church of Canyon about five months, will be moved to the pastorate of the Sunray Methodist Church.

Rev. Bill Kent will remain in the pastor's position for Canyon's United Methodist Church with Dr. Hubert Thompson as associate and minister of education here.

In the immediate area, Weldon L. Tucker was re-assigned to the Wesley Methodist Church in Amarillo from his post with the Happy Methodist Church. Coming in to fill Tucker's vacated post will be Rev. Carl Oglesby, formerly at Hart.

Former pastors for the United Methodist Church in Canyon who were re-assigned at the conference included Rev. Newton Starnes who was with the Lamesa congregation who was moved to Sweetwater First Methodist Church; and Doyle Ragle who will remain in the conference offices as an associate program director there.

Eye Bank Group Elects Don York

Don York of Canyon was named president of the board of directors for the Lions Club Hi-Plains Eye Bank at a recent meeting.

Don Colley, also of Canyon, was selected as secretary-treasurer for the group.

Other officers on the board include Joe Don Cummings of Hereford, first vice president; Lee Welch of Kress, second vice president; and Hugh Dickey of Borger, third vice president.

CHAMPIONSHIP SADDLE, trophies, patches, and buckles were the prizes collected by Dennis Lee Howell as he was named champion bull rider for the Tri-State Rodeo Association during the week end.

Champion Bull Rider Collects Awards

Dennis Lee Howell compiled 38 points for the year to claim the championship in bull riding for the tri-State Rodeo Association.

Howell, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry J. Howell of Canyon, received a bevy of prizes in Tri-State Rodeo Association finals held last week end at the Tri-State Fairground Coliseum in Amarillo with representatives from Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas participating.

The young cowboy, who will be a senior student at Canyon High School this fall, earned a fourth place in the bareback finals during the week end and totalled for a second place average in the finals. He averaged for a third place in the bareback finals.

An engraved saddle and buckle was awarded for the championship title. Howell also received a sportsmanship trophy from the Spearman Rodeo Club at the event along with two championship patches, a jacket blazer, and another engraved buckle for the final's average.

Howell's brother, Ronnie, 15, participated in the finals of the bareback events until injured in the finals. Ronnie was the only freshman student qualifying for the finals contest.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS OF COUNTY'S INTENTION TO LET CONTRACT FOR CONSTRUCTION OF A COUNTY OFFICE BUILDING AND OF THE INTENT OF THE COUNTY TO ISSUE CERTIFICATES OF OBLIGATION.

SEALED PROPOSALS addressed to Commissioners' Court of Randall County, Texas, will be received at the Commissioners' Courtroom, County Courthouse, Canyon, Texas, until 2:00 o'clock P.M. on the 1st day of July, 1974, for the purpose of furnishing all plant, labor, materials and equipment and the performing of all work required for the construction of a County office building at which time and place the proposals will be publicly opened, read aloud and referred to the County's Architect for consideration, checking and evaluation. Final award of the contract and issuance of certificates of obligation are proposed to be made on the 8th day of July, 1974, by the Commissioners' Court convened in regular session at its regular meeting place at the County Courthouse.

BIDS shall be submitted in sealed envelopes upon the blank form of proposal furnished. Sealed envelopes shall be marked "BID FOR RANDALL COUNTY OFFICE BUILDING."

PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS and contract documents may be examined without charge at the office of the County Clerk, Randall County Courthouse, Canyon, Texas. Copies of such instruments may be obtained from VAUGHAN, McMORRIES & ASSOCIATES, at 7811 Amarillo Blvd., West, Amarillo, Texas. Applications for plans and specifications, etc., must be accompanied by a deposit of $200.00 for one set of plans and specifications. Any bidder, upon returning such plans and specifications in good condition, will be refunded his deposit. Any non-bidder, upon returning such plans and specifications in good condition will be refunded one-half his deposit. Deposits will not be returned after ten days following the bid opening.

A cashier's check, certified check, or acceptable bidder's bond, payable to Randall County, Canyon, Texas, in the amount of five percent (5%) of the base bid must accompany each bid as a guarantee that, if awarded the contract, the bidder will promptly enter into a contract with Randall County and execute such bonds as may be required. Checks will be returned to unsuccessful bidders.

THE SUCCESSFUL BIDDER on the project will be required to furnish a performance bond and payment bond, each in the full amount of the contract, written by a responsible surety company authorized to do business in the State of Texas, and satisfactory to the Commissioners' Court as required by Article 5160, V.A.T.C.S. Attention of bidders is also directed to the provisions of Article 5159a, V.A.T.C.S., requiring that not less than the general prevailing rates of per diem wages for work of similar character in the locality where the work is performed shall be paid all laborers, workmen and mechanics employed in the construction of public works.

BIDDERS are expected to inspect the site of the work and to inform themselves of all local conditions, and carefully examine the plans, specifications and other documents. Should a bidder find discrepancies in, or omissions from the plans, specifications or other documents, or should he question their meaning, he should at once notify the Architect in writing seven (7) days prior to submitting any bid, and obtain clarification. Work shall be completed on the Project on or before December 1, 1974. If the work has not been completed by this date, amortization payments as set forth in the specifications shall be paid by Contractor.

NO BIDDER may withdraw his bid for at least fifteen (15) days after the scheduled closing time for receipt of bids.

On the date and time set for the awarding of the contract (July 8, 1974, 2:00 o'clock, P.M.) the County proposes to authorize the issuance of Certificates of Obligation (payable from taxation) in the maximum principal amount of $300,000.00 in payment of all or a portion of the contract price and the contractual obligation it will incur. The successful bidder will be required to accept such certificates in payment of all or a portion of the contract price or assign such certificates to the party with whom the County has made provision for the contractor to sell and assign such certificates at their face value (no accrued interest), and each bidder shall be required to elect on the bid form whether he will accept or assign such certificates.

In case of ambiguity or lack of clarity in stating the contract price, the County reserves the right to consider the most advantageous construction thereof or to reject the bid and to waive formalities.

ceremonies. Mrs. Gene Brownrigg of the Texas committee will come from Arlington to make the presentations.

Canyon and Randall County representatives still await word on acceptance of their proposed bicentennial program by the national committee.

The group sent in the proposal almost a month ago and is waiting for official recognition.

Other towns and counties to be presented flags include Donley County with Clarendon, Hedley and Howardwick; Carson County with Groom, Panhandle, Skellytown and White Deer, Amarillo and Potter County, Borger, Pampa, Lefors and McLean in Grey County, Hereford, Armstrong County with Claude and Washburn, Fritch, Swisher County with Happy and Tulia, Spearman and Hansford County.

Opening ceremonies for the bicentennial and the railroad contest will begin at 8 p.m. Curtain time for "TEXAS" is 8:30 p.m.

Reservations should be made in advance for the show by calling 655-2182.

that petitions can be presented at the proper time to prevent the issuance of certificates of obligation and to call a special election.

He said petitions must bear the names of 5 per cent of the registered voters in the area considering the construction. They must be presented on the day contracts are awarded for the construction.

A new Texas law which provides for the issuance of certificates of obligation also provides for the petition route.

City commissioners will also consider tonight what to do with the old city hall annex, which now houses the police department.

Due to tonight's meeting, commissioners will not meet at 7 p.m. Monday in their regularly scheduled meeting.

commissioners, now embroiled in a hassle with the City of Amarillo for the same information.

Commissioner John Fulgenzi told Kuykendall the county would have to charge the school and city for the lists on the same basis under which they plan to charge the City of Amarillo for the lists.

Commissioners have decided to make Amarillo pay for the lists in light of skyrocketing fees charged by the city for answering fire calls in rural Randall County areas.

"When we charge the city of Amarillo we have to charge you," Bill Butler told Kuykendall.

Commissioners deferred action on Kuykendall's request until next Monday's meeting.

But, apparently, under a new Texas Open Records Law, Kuykendall can get the tax lists for a fee set by the State Board of Control.

Apparently, the same type fee would also apply to the tax lists wanted by the city of Amarillo.

Canyon City Manager George Loudder said the board of control sets the fees which can be charged for computer program and run time. The charge which the county can make under the law is $97 per hour for the computer time.

Loudder said the list could cost the city and school tax office only about $35 since it would take less than 12 minutes to run the automobile list they desire.

The open records law also provides that the tax rolls be open to the public for inspection at any time. Thus Kuykendall could also go over the rolls himself and compile his own list of car registrations.

Commissioners also turned Horace Dwight away for another week in his quest for approval of a plat on McCormick Estates in the north part of the county.

Dwight has appeared before the court numerous times in recent months seeking approval of the plat. Commissioners instructed him to place a statement on the plat itself noting that the county will maintain the roads in the McCormick subdivision only as dirt roads and then return next week for final action.

Commissioner Paul Lindsey, who was prime mover in a recent renovation of the county road maintenance policy, objected to including dedication of the streets in the subdivision in the plat approval.

Dwight paved several streets in the area last fall against the advice of commissioners.

Dist. Atty. George Dowlen told the commissioners they could require Dwight to place the special provision on the plat noting that the county will not be responsible for the paved roads to alleviate any future problems.

In final action, the commissioners passed a resolution condemning the total concept of establishment of county courts at law in every Texas county. The resolution will be sent the Texas Constitutional Convention in Austin.

they should receive smaller benefits for a longer length of time.

The EEOC questions the logic of that statement, declaring that the system works arbitrary hardships on individuals and cannot treat individuals as a class by saying that all women live 5 years longer than all men.

rillo television newsman Paul Roberts.

Roberts told Wilson he had never threatened to sue the county.

"Since Roberts said he was not going to sue, I could see no reason for the commissioners to go behind closed doors unless they in fact wanted to discuss their tax problems as indicated by Judge Pond," Wilson said.

Roberts through television reports has chastised commissioners for what he terms an "illegal" tax system for county residents.

The Texas Open Meetings Law, under which the restraining order was presented, says commissioners may meet behind closed doors to discuss contemplated litigation. They may not meet in executive session to discuss revamping their tax system, however.

National Gold Emblem To FFA

Canyon High School Future Farmers of America chapter was selected to receive the National Gold Emblem for outstanding chapter work, according to James Walker, vo-ag instructor here.

The National Gold Emblem came to the CHS chapter after being selected as fourth place in the total state competition. The chapter is judged in about a dozen areas of participation in the contest each year including leadership, cooperative activities, scholastic abilities, supervised farming projects, and local, state and national activities.

"This was the first time for Canyon FFA to receive the national award and it is the highest ranking that a chapter is eligible to receive," stated Walker.

Readin' And Writin'

By LORENA MILLER

Noticed where Margaret Harper was honored with a "Globe Times Accolade" recently for bringing her dreams of an outdoor drama down to earth in the form of "TEXAS" which will begin its ninth season at the Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon on June 19.

The musical drama, written by Paul Green, which has had a total of almost 600,000 viewers in its eight seasons past, has been responsible for putting this part of Texas before the public on a nationwide scope — really internationally since many of those seeing the spectacular drama have travelled from abroad. Mrs. Harper, the wife of Dr. Ples Harper former head of the modern language department at West Texas State University, was one of the founding members of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation.

She was honored with a cultural award from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in 1967. It was with her guiding hand and help of many folks interested in the production of Mrs. Harper's dream that "TEXAS" was put before the public to bring to life the history of the Panhandle of Texas each evening around sundown during the warm summer months.

While we are on outdoor drama life this week it might be of interest to readers that several outdoor dramas and musicals are available in this vacationing area during the summer months. For instance the "Shepherd of the Hills" is a beautifully written story of life in the Ozarks. It's theatre is located on the site of the original story and characters are portrayed by mountainfolk along with drama students of the area near Branson, Mo.

And if you happen out that way, it is interesting to see a true Ozark crafts village for a day at Silver Dollar City just west of Branson — and down near Harrison, Ark. you can make a day seeing the amusements of Pappy Yokum's land at Dogpatch USA.

Next time we travel out that way our plans call for seeing the "Trail of Tears" outdoor drama and Cherokee Villages, both near Tahlequah, Okla. and some of the religious hillside plays near Eureka Springs, Ark. too!

Might even wet a fishing hook at Bull Shoals Lake in Arkansas which is only a hop-skip and jump from the home of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Pond, the former Sharon Miller of Canyon, where Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller of Canyon are presently visiting with their daughter, son-in-law, and two young grandchildren, R.L. and Carol Ann.

When talking of fishing — and fish eating, I've been reading about an unusual court case going on down in central Texas where some folks happened to dine on fresh crappie fish at a restaurant there.

A slew of game wardens caught the fish eaters enjoying their meals, loaded down a "doggie" bag with fish bones for evidence and proceeded to inform the customers that they would face fines and/or jail for consuming the fresh crappie.

Guess it pays to learn all the laws, even which type fish to eat when you are out enjoying a meal away from the kitchen. . .

Heard another fish tale this week, also. Joe Roberts of Amarillo (who is employed with Fassauer Industries in Canyon) vacationed in Mexico recently with a group including several couples.

They took their boats, camping equipment and spent about a week on the lake catching a gob of bass, just south of Victoria in Old Mexico. Joe said the bass were so plentiful that they were "churning the water like carp" and were "biting on plastic worms, lures and even the unbaited hooks."

"We spent our time catching the three and four pound ones and when we went out into the lake catching the 6-7 pound bass we threw the others back in to gain some weight for next time," he related when returning from the trip.

Donnie Trim, speech therapist for Canyon schools, works with John Hammonds at Gene Howe Elementary School. The speech therapy program is part of the Special Services program of Canyon Independent School District. Trim has been with the Canyon program for one year. He is a graduate of WTSU. During the summer he teaches at Rex Reeves and Gene Howe Elementary Schools. During the regular term, he teaches at Rex Reeves and Canyon Junior High School.

Energy Survey Set

A survey of energy usage in 250 Amarillo and 100 Deaf Smith county homes is presently being conducted by West Texas State University geography students.

Its purpose is to learn more about how Texans feel about the energy shortages, their concerns for the impact of the shortages, their ideas as to what steps should be taken, and their attitudes towards programs already underway.

The study is being done by WTSU in conjunction with the University of Houston Energy Institute, which ran an identical survey of 350 Houston area homes earlier this year. The compiled opinions will be presented to the Governor's Energy Advisory Council later this summer.

"The data will be used as input for policy," says WTSU Geography Professor Jack Muthersbough, the project coordinator. The survey should provide guidelines for future decisions by the legislature and other governmental bodies dealing with the crisis.

He also notes that the built-in assumption behind the questions is "that things are going to be worse."

"We're using our resources faster than before. We cannot continue to do this indefinitely. We've got to level off," the urban geographer says.

Participants in the opinion sample, which takes approximately 45 minutes to complete, will be paid $5 for their time. A follow-up survey of the same homes will be run next year, also paid, to evaluate the Texans' changes in attitudes, information and opinions during the 12-month lapse.

The survey's 72 questions range from an analyzation of appliance and car usage to feelings on various governmental rewards for lessened energy consumption. The survey also makes a special effort to discover what the sources are of an individual's information on the energy crisis, and which he feels is the most honest and accurate. Others attempt to distinguish who the public blames, if anything or anyone, for the crisis and what can be done about it.

The comparison of the two regions will probably show, Muthersbough predicts, "the impact of the energy crisis on the individuals having to spend more time in line for gas. The awareness level of the oil and gas industry may be higher in Houston than here. They should show a greater level of concern."

Yet he predicts that everyone's concern can't help but grow in the next year. "How bad things will be next winter we don't know, but the crisis is going to stay."

SPRY Club Meets

SPRY Club for senior citizenry of Canyon will be meeting this afternoon, Thursday, at 2 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the United Methodist Church for a book review program to be given by author and columnist, Ann Brown.

Palisades Palaver

By MILDRED TURNER

THE PALISADES PICNIC, which was rained out on June 1, was almost blown out last Saturday but some brave souls made it! We had out-of-town company so did not make it. Dora Waldrop read the minutes from the last (picnic) business meeting. Those present paid dues which reminds the rest of us to get ours paid because this money is needed to finish the improvement projects already started.

It was voted and passed to buy Lum Edwards' road grader so the roads could be kept in better shape.

The month of June was declared to be beautification month; paint up, clean up, fix up. For assistance in securing trucks or help with heavy work call the chairman, Mr. Scott - 352-4670, or one of the club officers. They can help you or refer you to someone who can. Phil Boothe - 622-0781, Paul Fleming - 622-0601, Dora Waldrop 622-0250, Jerri Thompson - 622-1260, O. O. Guess - 622-1232 or Jack Inman - 622-1561. Hope I didn't leave out any.

These people will help you if you need help in hauling off unwanted or discarded articles. I am sure some of the young people would like to help because they sure helped at the country fair. Those who are not working or gone on vacation will gladly help.

Keep a list of what you plan to do and what you achieve and I am sure it would be interesting to note the longest list.

SOME HAVE ASKED if I plan to continue the column during the summer. That depends on you a lot. I think it would be interesting to know what everyone is doing or to hear of their vacations but I am too busy to write if you're too busy to call.

It could be a way of communication and keeping up with each other. When I skipped recently I was out of town but will tell you about it next week. I got some nice phone calls last week saying I was missed. It is up to you.

THE PALISADES CHURCH is growing steadily but like everyone else is feeling the loss of people on vacation. I usually try to find me a little church once or twice when I'm on vacation.

I am not a crank about the name on the door but enjoy just dropping in on a Sunday morning to worship God. I have found that is what most churches do on Sunday morning so I just find one and enjoy the fellowship of God's people. (though complete strangers to me).

I am thrilled that the services in Palo Duro will continue this summer as they have.

THE VAUGHNS NEXT door have been on vacation and to a family reunion where they were all present. Pearl said they had a wonderful time. Only one of Streak's sisters complained of being hoarse and she was told it was because she talked too much!

Aren't those family reunions fun where everyone just lets their hair down and has a ball. We all go jump in the lake, sing and make music all night, show family movies. It takes a week of rest to catch up when we return and sometimes we are hoarse also.

Newsfolk Entertained With Barbecue Outing

Canyon News staff members were entertained Thursday, June 6, with a "bring-a-steak" barbecue in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller and daughter, Carolyn, at 1300 2nd Avenue.

After barbecued steaks and accompanying salads and desserts were consumed the group played volleyball and visited for the duration of the evening.

Attending were Carroll and Susan Wilson and their two daughters, D'Arcy and Julia; Dr. and Mrs. Walter Shelly and daughter, Melissa; Brad and Joan Castleman; Dick and Carol Roe of Claude; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rogers and daughter, Angela; Betty Donnell of Happy and daughter, Marta Kay, with friend, Beverly Wilhelm, also of Happy; and Marvin D. Beef Favorite Featured For Father's Day Dining

By MARY NEAL HENRY

BEEF — FATHER'S DAY Favorite is the theme of the Texas CowBelles this year in their efforts to promote every family to serve their Dad the very best on his day — BEEF.

Happy CowBelle Beef for Father's Day Chairman, Joan Odom, has promoted beef by presenting cuts of beef to two mayors, that of Happy's Foster Harman and Canyon's Dr. Manly Bryan.

Judy Thompson, Joan Odom, and Vivian Woods presented Mayor Foster Harman a cut of beef as he proclaimed "Beef — Father's Day Favorite" in Happy.

Willa Elliott and Othella McGehee presented Mayor Manly Bryan of Canyon a large roast beef when he proclaimed "Beef — Father's Day Favorite" in Canyon.

Governor Dolph Briscoe also proclaimed Beef for Father's Day in the state of Texas. This proclamation was signed for the Texas CowBelles in February.

Joan Odom has contacted advertising to include Beef for Father's Day in both newspapers and radio (local grocery stores have been most cooperative), distributed place mats about the beef industry to school cafeterias and restaurants, and run articles of interest about beef and beef recipes weekly. Both businesses and individuals have bought beef ads this month. We thank each of you! And Joan, thank you for that great job!

Any cut of beef is as nutritious as any other. If cooked correctly at a low temperature and not overcooked, the less expensive cut of beef selected will be as flavorful and tender as any other cut of beef. Only beef, or animal protein, contains all the amino acids needed daily for health. These are not stored in the body but must be consumed daily. Keep beef in your daily diet.

Happy CowBelles met on Wednesday morning with Mrs. Everett Culp. Mrs. Wendy Sims, Mrs. Melton McGehee, and Mrs. Ruth Sims served as co-hostesses.

WHEAT IS BEING cut in these areas — for those still lucky enough to have wheat to cut. The hail did take its toll — and seemingly every direction from Happy. We of the agriculture industry did not care to flood the market with wheat this summer anyway.

Free Blood Policy For Donors Today

A free blood insurance policy will be given each donor in a city-wide blood drive to be held today, Thursday, June 13, at the Coffee Memorial Blood Center located at 306 17th Street in Canyon.

All citizens of Canyon are invited to participate in the drive which will be held between 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. The blood policies to be issued will cover the donor with free blood when needed anywhere in the country during the next year and the policy is written to cover all members of the donor's immediate family.

Citizens between the ages of 18 and 65 are invited to participate. John Mitchell, community relations director for the blood center, notes that the blood center is conducting the drives throughout area cities to supply blood to local hospitals.

No longer will blood be paid for by the receiving centers according to Mitchell, who noted that every five seconds someone needs a blood transfusion somewhere.

Winds Reminder of Thirties

By REBA RAEF

GREETINGS FROM UMBARGER. Well, the blow last Saturday brought back unpleasant memories of the dirty thirties. We hope and pray that we never have those terrible dust storms again.

ST. MARY'S JUNIOR choir played and sang the beautiful Bossa Nova mass at 10:00 a.m. last Sunday. The mass was held in the parish hall. The work of the C.C.D. classes for the past year were on display and following the mass, a covered dush luncheon was enjoyed by the congregation.

Kenny Kiker, son of Mrs. Doris Kiker of Canyon and grandson of the Lawrence Washingtons has returned to duty with the Marines in San Diego, Calif. Kenny has finished "boot camp" and is now to be assigned to duty. Last Sunday evening, his grandparents hosted a farewell dinner for him at their home in Umbarger. Attending the dinner were his mother, Doris, Barnell and Gloria Washington and daughter, Brenda, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kelly from Amarillo, and Virgie Lytle from Garland, and Ruby Hudson and her daughter, Jean Morris, and daughters, from Greenville, Texas. Virgie and Ruby are sisters of Mrs. Washington.

CHARLEY AND KATHERINE Beckman have out-of-town guests. Mrs. Mary Perry from Goff, Kan., and her son and his family, the Joe Perrys, from Leavenworth, Kan. are here. Mary will spend several weeks with the Beckmans, and the Joe Perrys will leave the last of this week.

HERE IS A home remedy that will get rid of aphids in your garden. Make up a little soapy water with your liquid dish washing soap and add a few drops of onion juice and spray your plants about twice weekly and the aphids will leave. I tried it and it works.

Cowboy Artists Elect Officers

Texas Cowboy Artists Association held a recent art show and election of officers in conjunction with an auction of the South Texas Longhorn Breeders at Kerrville.

Named president of the Cowboy Artists Group was Jim Thomas of Amarillo. Thomas formerly attended West Texas State University in Canyon during which time he was an employee of the Canyon News as the outdoors editor. Thomas now resides in Amarillo and was founder of the Texas Cowboy Artists Association when the professional organization of artists was organized in 1972 with a goal of presenting historical documentation of the American cowboy in art.

Serving with Thomas will be Jim Ward of Canyon. Ward was named vice president and will succeed to the presidency in 1975 according to the group's bylaws. Ward's most recent work was the design for a commemorative medallion for Randall County's bi-centennial celebration. Kenneth Wyatt, noted artist from Tulia, was elected to serve as secretary-treasurer for the association. Officers and new members of the group will be installed at a banquet June 22 at the Scurry County Coliseum in Snyder.

WAYSIDE REVERIES, a collection of poems and thoughts by Clarence N. Cosby, was offered local citizens in an autograph party and reception at the Canyon News offices Sunday afternoon. The author is shown being served punch by his wife, Lottie Bell, as his sister, Mrs. Ida Billingsley, also of Canyon, watches. About 40 were present for the reception.

Life At Siesta

Truck On Trial

By EARLINE BENHAM

THE OFFICERS OF the Siesta Ladies Auxiliary wish to express their thanks and appreciation to the members and all persons who have given of their time, effort, and support in our fund raising projects. We sincerely hope you will continue to back all of the upcoming projects, so that it will be possible for the community of Siesta to purchase and maintain a fire truck in the very near future.

Sincerely,
Doris McKee (secretary)

SIESTA RESIDENTS ARE very excited over a fire truck they have on trial basis. Actually, it's a G.M.C. pickup, with twin tanks mounted in the bed. They feel the maintenance and storage would be simplified with this type of truck, compared to a big one. They will examine the truck for a thirty day period, at the end of which they will make the decision as to whether this is the desired truck.

THE 'PARENTS NIGHT Out' June 8 had the biggest turnout yet. There were sixteen children attending. The sponsors this time were Sharon Jones and Pearl West. We will plan this activity monthly and invite anyone in Canyon or Amarillo to take advantage of it. Watch for our July schedule.

JUNE CALENDAR

Sat. June 22 — Bean and Cornbread Supper — 8 p.m. — $1.00 per person — 50 cents under 12.

Fri. June 28 — BINGO! 8 p.m. — Everyone come! All new prizes.

NEW RESIDENTS

AS REPORTED IN last week's paper, Mr. and Mrs. McKee did go on vacation, however, her departing words, "We will have a ball" didn't quite foretell their future.

They were just beginning their tour of Six Flags when the place was evacuated, due to the bomb threat. Two bombs were found and the McKee's weren't real enthused about going back the next day. They were going to find other fun things to do when the rain set in, so they gave up and came home. Ah, for the good life at Siesta! Could we say their vacation was a "bomber?!"

TO EXPLAIN OUR next congratulatory note, I must first tell you that Ron Pingel has been off work for "weeks?" due to a sprained ankle, and Monday was his first day back on the job.

Now, he has several congratulation notes here, so I'll lump them together. There are notes from: Ron's wife, his 2-year-old son, his wife's best friend, his next door neighbors, and several notes unsigned. They all have the same beginning, "Blessed are we . . ."

Canyon's Churchlife Involves Many Folks

A PRAYER

An earnest prayer that's sent above
Is like a little prayer of love,
And though you may have knocked before,
Keep knocking still upon that door,
And there in peace and trust abide
Until — by faith, it's opened wide.

(A prayer was printed in the new yearbook for Canyon City Chapter, No. 105, Order of the Eastern Star and seemed also fitting to print along with the regular items of Churchlife).

A majority of the churches of Canyon are involved in summer camp activities for youth, adults, and even the handicapped. Many of the churches help defray costs of the camp for their members and guests so check with your local churches for information about their camp schedules and locations.

Canyon Students Take Part In Institute

Twenty-one Canyon second grade students will participate in the second phase of a Minnemast Institute being conducted at WTSU, according to Brice Slack, assistant principal at Rex Reeves Elementary School.

The National Science Foundation has awarded WTSU a grant which will support a Summer Institute in Minnemast materials and methods of teaching to run concurrently with the first summer term at WTSU, June 3-July 12. The Minnemast program was developed at the University of Minnesota in mathematics and science for Grades 1, 2 and 3. The Institute will be conducted at Rex Reeves Elementary School and WTSU.

Mrs. Virginia Stone, a second grade teacher from San Antonio, is the recognized representative of the Minnemast Project in Texas, according to Dr. Hollis Cook, chairman of the WT Mathematics Department. Mrs. Stone will demonstrate the teaching methods and assist with the entire institute. Mrs. Stone uses the concepts that she will be teaching in the classroom at San Antonio.

Canyon students participating in the program will begin classes Monday, June 17. According to Slack, they will go to Rex Reeves for class from 8:45 a.m. until 11:45 a.m. Students taking part were chosen by their teachers prior to the end of school. The class will be an enrichment exercise for the students.

The concept behind the program which originated in the 1960s, according to Cook, is to use science experiments to teach the principals of math. Cook said that one object of the study is to put the principals of math to practical use for the student.

Cook said that he felt this program to be the best method for learning math.

Cook also stated that the Institute at WT is the only one in Texas and is one of the two programs in the United States.

Dr. Allen Humphreys, one of the originators of the program, will be in Canyon for three days to view the teachers in the classroom exercises and to instruct the students as the teachers look on.

Teachers from Canyon, Amarillo, Tulia, White Deer, Tahoka and Hereford are participating in the program.

School's Out—Watch For Vacationing Hazards

By TROYCE MULHERIN

Vacation(?) Greetings:

DO KIDS REALLY deserve this much vacation? Really now. Sleeping in is nice. Daily trips to the grocery are not. Bickering is not. Avoiding chores is not. Constant cooking is not. Year-round car pooling is not.

Trips to the dentist, doctor, optometrist and to various lessons have already lost their appeal. Trips to the emergency room at the hospital shouldn't figure in at all, but do.

Jay Edwards' very first day of freedom found him in just such a position. He fell, after doctor's hours, of course, cutting his head. Four stitches put him back together, and also put him late to ball practice.

The ball practice was of more concern to him than the stitches. He and his dad, Bill, made it though, and Jay is the same as well.

GENE HOWE'S BEGINNING painting course is over, and everybody passed. (Charlotte and Mary Frances generously gave the anxious artists "A's"). Those in attendance at the last session and receiving "diplomas" included Ann Oswald, Reba Mitchusson, Joyce Thompson, Lynda Stewart, Audrey Mitchell, Jackie Mayfield, Leota Gross, Wanda Childers, Joe Luscombe, Velta Hord, Sue Hanson, Polly Hanson, Sherrie Cates, Louise Bromley, Carolyn Woodard, Peggy Washburn, Mrs. Daughty and yours truly. Al Morris, husband of Ada, attended as a guest.

A little party followed the graduation. Highlighting the refreshments was a cake, decorated with a palette, made by Ada.

Others who demonstrated great devotion, but were unable to attend the last session included, Lois Wells, Sharon Storlie, Janice Richmond, Kay Walsh, Ellen Wallace, Melvin Cobb, Lounette Carter, Carolyn and Brenda Brown.

Lots of fun and lots of learning accompanied this class, which will hopefully be repeated this fall.

THE FIFTH GRADE girls team coached by Ken Drost, who is assisted by George Schmidt, has racked up a couple of wins already this season. Last week's 13-7 win over Avondale came in a practice game. Team members include, Jo Delaney, Dena Harp, Carla Schmidt, Shelley Shenk, Leslie Lichte, Debra Drost, La Melva Fry, Gina Moore, Lana Lindsey, Cathy Call, Kaki Mulherin, Cindy Nuzum, Sheila Hicks, Traci Gillis, Deanna Henwood, Kim Langford, Cindy Yarbrough and Kelli Campbell.

THE FIFTH AND sixth grade boys being co-coached by Len Schmidt and Danny Sellers met to play Alice Landergrin last week. The other team didn't show, so the young men played the parents. No one seemed to know just which group made the most scores. Homerum hitters were anonymous. (Word is that for further information concerning this game, inquiries should be directed to Bettye Stokes).

Team members include Tim Nash, Tim Glenn, Bill Davis, Todd Walker, Eddie Sauer, Matt Malson, Shannon Edwards, Kevin Sommers, Tony Sanders, Duane Dove, Mike Hamilton, Tim Stokes and Randy Green.

The first grade T-ball team coached by Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilcox has had one practice game with Eastridge.

The 34-35 score is a story in itself.

Team members are Jay Edwards, Chris Seth, Lynn Vanlandingham, Scott Kozak, Brent Zachary, Walter Morris, Don Meier, John Hicks, Daryl Robinson, Garrod Ashford, Kip Camfield, Tod Wilcox, Delbert Hollis, Kody Morris, Bert Copeland and Royal Yarbrough.

TANYA HOLT AND Jackie Mayfield are coaching the girls first grade T-ball team. (Gene Howe's first). Stephanie Camouse, Michelle Marrs, Kimberly Thompson, Pam Holt, Leslie Gwyn, Valerie Davis, Dawn Davee, Billie Sanders, Rita Mayfield, Ginger Bell, Darla Campbell, Tracy Betty, Dawn Brennan, Shannon Baker, Allison Kitten, Lori Rawls and Debbie Dove are lively team members. These girls are learning fast.

VETERAN COACH EURIS Phipps' third and fourth grade girls have racked up a win over Southlawn, score of 6-4. Teresa Polvadore was homerun hitter for the game. (Nell, Euris' wife, is an unofficial coach and official score keeper and reporter for the team).

Members include Shellie Camouse, Angela Copeland, Mindy Davis, Missy Davis, Shelley Jobe, Leslie Martindale, Christi Mendez, Judy Nuzum, Jan Phipps, Teresa Polvadore, Denise Tennison, Tonya Thompson, Melinda Yarbrough and Cindy Turner.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES to Danny Sellers, who became fifteen last Monday, the 10th. Karol Hicks shared the same day and the same age. Glenna Schmidt birthdayed the same day, but wouldn't say if she shared the same age or not.

This trio once partied together, being neighbors and all. Since the Hicks have moved from the immediate territory, the celebrating is done in separate parties.

LAST SATURDAY WAS Cub Country Day in Scout Kingdom. Despite wind, sand and threat of rain, Pack 130 braved the elements to attend this happening.

Loyal, true blue, adults going along included Bill and Sarah Edwards, Gene and Bernice Powers, Preston and Joan Hollis and Horace and Juanita Evans.

Scouters were David Bromley, Shannon Edwards, Kevin Oliver, Donald Oliver, John Ashley, Kenny Nagunst, Gary Evans, Scott Powers, Duane Hollis, Russell Schmidt, Shane Sanders and Kevin Wright. Guests included Jay Edwards, Delbert Hollis, Beth Powers and John Hicks.

Following the hiking episode, the ladies took a breathless voice vote to bar Bill Edwards from being the "leader" next time around. (He took too big steps too fast).

The rough waves were no match for Preston Hollis, who was voted in as Expert Oarsman following the canoeing.

Following a chilly swim, the group enjoyed refreshments and crafts. Sherrie Cates was voted the Most Crafty. (Now, don't jump to conclusions — read on). What she actually did to earn this title was guide the youngsters in the craft sessions. The boys made some darling recipe card holders shaped like a block of cheese. Even added some rock mice to their creations. They also made frog puppets from paper plates.

Last on the full schedule was archery and action on the rifle range. Bill Edwards, Shannon Edwards and David Bromley all made bullseyes! Bernice Powers was voted the Outstanding Lady Archer, 'cause she got the arrows pointed in the right direction. Finally full of fun, being weary and sand-blasted, the group headed for home. (Home is where the older folks keep the liniment).

ARLEAN TODD AND daughter, Cindy, are really enjoying their fairly recent move to Canyon. Their new home is located close to the junior high, where Cindy will be an eighth grader next fall.

Arlene says it is easier to drive back and forth to Amarillo to her job than to drive back and forth, back and forth, back and forth to Canyon for school and social activities. At any rate, we in the Gene Howe area will miss these charming ladies. Our loss is Canyon's gain.

WALTER SCHMIDT, FATHER of Leonard and George, has been visiting in the Leonard Schmidt home. Walter is originally from Albuquerque, but is visiting in Amarillo from a trip to Los Angeles.

* * *

HI TO TWO special young charmers, Shari and Sheila Johnson.

LET'S REMEMBER DAD on his special day this coming Sunday the 16th. After all, he may need a new aluminum bat, or a new tennis racket, or some tennis balls, or some candy, or some new lawn chairs. He needs a lot of things. Mostly, he needs and deserves our love and appreciation.

* * *

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall.
